

Award Criteria

Committee Award Criteria:

Outstanding delegate is awarded to one delegate who:

- Spoke frequently and displayed a very high level of debate throughout both days of the conference.
- Represent their countries views on the committee topics with perfect accuracy.
- Submitted amendments frequently.
- Submitted a resolution of a high standard.

Highly commended delegate is awarded to one delegate who:

- Spoke frequently and displayed a high level of debate throughout at least one day of the conference.
- Represented their countries views on the committees topics with accuracy.
- Submitted at least one amendment.
- Submitted a resolution.

Commended delegate is awarded to numerous delegates who:

- Spoke frequently with a consistently good standard of debate throughout at least one day of the conference.
- Showed a basic understanding of their countries views on at least one of the committees topics.
- Submitted at least one amendment.

Junior delegate is awarded to one delegate who:

- Has no more than three years of secondary level education.
- Spoke frequently.
- Showed a basic understanding of their countries views on at least one of their countries topics.

Delegation Award Criteria:

Distinguished Delegation is awarded to one delegation who:

- Had numerous delegates in their delegation win individual committee awards.
- Had all delegates engage in a consistent high level of debate in their respective committees.
- Debated at a high level in general assembly.
- Had at least one resolution debated in general assembly.
- Remained respectful throughout general assembly.

Highly commended delegation is awarded to two delegations who:

- Had at least one delegate win an award in their respective committee.
- Had numerous delegates debating at a high standard within their respective committees.
- Contributed meaningfully in general assembly.
- Remained respectful through general assembly.

Best delegation in general assembly is awarded to a delegation who:

- The delegation debated to a very high standard of debate in general assembly.
- The delegation had their placard raised frequently in general assembly.
- Numerous delegates from their delegation spoke in general assembly.
- At least one resolution from the delegation was debated in general assembly.
- Remained respectful throughout general assembly.